Carmel's Best Known Citizen Passes Away

All old and many new residents of Carmel will learn with deep regret of the death of Frank H. Powers in San Francisco on Monday last. Mr. Powers was a native of California, was 56 years of age at the time of his death, and was highly esteemed and noted in Carmel for his genial personal qualities as well as his business sagacity in selecting Carmel for one of his principal business activities.

Carmel has sustained a great loss in the demise of Mr. Powers, who while much occupied during late years with his extensive law practice in San Francisco, has kept in intimate touch, together with J. E. Devendorf, with the artistic and material life of Carmel and the Highlands.

The pudding bubbled in the pot,
The turkey in the oven
Puffed up so high; the pumpkin pie
Cried out, "Hey, stop your shovin'!"
The taters in the saucepan
Danced a jig against the lid.
Cranberries popped and skipped and hopped
And sauced the rest—they did.
The kitchen tins were all agog.
The kettles all a-humming;
No wonder—boy and girl alive!

GOV'T OPERATION OUT OF POLITICS

Party Leaders Convinced by Results of National Canvass of Editors.

VINDICATES FORMER POLL.

Overwhelming Veto Like That of Year Before From Both Sides of Political Fence.

Washington.—Inner circles of both political parties here are greatly interested in the results of a national poll on the question of government operation among over 5,000 newspaper editors throughout the country. With 86 per cent of these editors, regardless of political faith, giving it as their impartial opinion that the public is more than ever opposed to the government going into business in competition with its citizens, observers here see little chance that either political party will find it a profitable campaign issue.

In the opinion of party leaders this sort of a canvass among newspaper editors is the best possible index of public opinion. They recall a similar questionnaire sent out a year ago in connection with the proposition that the government take over the railroads permanently. Replies at that time from approximately the same number of editors showed 88 per cent against the principle of government operation. They recall also that within ten days from publication of the result of the former questionnaire the sentiment for return of the railroads to their owners had definitely crystallized.

Comparison of present results in detail with those of a year ago convinces the political student not only that these editors have been accurate in their judgment, but that party considerations played no part in forming it. From Democratic and supposedly radical Texas, for example, the present questionnaire brought a return from editor of 244 papers, twenty-three of which are Republican. Yet the percentage against government operation was 92, which is exactly the same as that given by 200 editors from Republican Michigan, among whom were representatives of only three Democratic papers. Other states that pair percentages significantly are Massachusetts and Nevada, with 100; Connecticut and South Carolina, with 97; Maine and West Virginia, with 96; Kentucky and New York, with 91; Missouri and Pennsylvania, with 89; Ohio and Oklahoma, with 87.

The result of the present poll as to government operation in each state

Our Commercialized Christmas. Christmas is the decoration day of a commercial age. Then, as on no other day, we face with compassion those who have fallen in our battles for wealth. For a moment we think of the thousands of children who have no share in that easy life we give our children, and must find the season's joy in the charity dinner. Along with the barter to which we have debased our giving within our circle of acquaintances, we play at extending the spirit of the day to those who are the pawns of our industrial game. The Salvation army lass, standing cold and numb on the street corner, collecting funds for Christmas baskets for the poor, reminds us of the wreckage left in the wake of our prosperity. We give a trifle to help the poor temper the bitterness of the year with a couple of hours' good eating.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS
IN PEACE TIME
Eastern Europe

Americans who contribute to the Red Cross would feel amply repaid for their generosity if they could see what it means to hundreds of thousands of war weary sufferers in the Balkans. Here is a widowed Roumanian mother with her five children just after a visit to a Red Cross relief station. All are barefoot and the boy at the left is wearing clothes made of scraps from the battlefields. They have just received winter clothing, food and condensed milk for the baby. Similar work is being done for Russian refugees driven from home.

Interesting Art News

An exhibition and sale of small paintings and thumb-box sketches will be held at Arts and Crafts Hall under the auspices of the Art Section, beginning Monday, November 22nd, and continuing open daily until January 8, 1921. The work to be shown is confined to a group of Carmel artists, each one is given a space in which to display their paintings. The gallery will be kept open every afternoon through the kindness of some Carmel ladies, who have volunteered their services.

On Monday afternoon, November 22nd, the opening day an informal reception will be held by the artists, members of the club and friends.

The new California Artists' Gallery, at the Hotel Richelieu in San Francisco, has been formally opened and promises to be one of the most beautiful on the Pacific Coast. The gallery has been arranged under direction of a committee composed of Edgar Walter, Spencer Macky, Ralph Stackpole and Ray Boynton.

Francis Todhunter, the well known San Francisco painter, is finishing a series of beautiful canvasses made during his recent visit to Carmel. Todhunter is designing plans for a studio here.

Kate Carew, the clever caricaturist with the Tattler, writes from her London studio that, although art and artists are experiencing activity and prosperity, there is a decided change in London since the war, and she is planning her return to Carmel as soon as possible with her husband, John Reed, and their little son. "California sunshine is more alluring than all that even beautiful England has to offer in the way of advantages," Mrs. Reed writes.

According to local artists who have returned from San Francisco, Maynard Dixon's canvasses, which were placed on public view at Gump's gallery Tuesday, are even more remarkable than the advance notices advocated.

The latest exhibition of the popular Western painter marks a decided change in his technique in which he has combined his well known cowboy and Indian characters with Western plains and mountains in a broader and entirely new way.

Dixon has always been a favorite in Carmel, and his many friends here welcome the news of his latest successes.

MAKING THE CHRISTMAS LIST

Rack Your Brain, Count 'Em Again, to See That No One's Missed.

"There, of course, is Aunt Maria, Aunt Lizzie and Aunt Jane; they're pretty old, but have to go down on the list again; and Uncle Joe and Uncle Pete and good old Uncle Lem; I wish I really could decide just what I should give them. And Cousin Nell and Cousin Kate and Cousins Belle and Sue, and Cousin May and Cousin Madge must be remembered, too. And Cousin Sam and Cousin Bill, and Cousins Jack and Ned—I'm sure if I had any more I would go off my head.

"There's Grandma Smith and Grandpa Smith, Grandma and Grandpa Jones—what shall I get for folks who have rheumatics in their bones? There's pa and ma and Brother Hal, and Sisters Maud and Grace; before I get through I think I'll be in the crazy place. Now what can I give all the girls who always give to me? Gladys, Hannah and Hortense and Lulu—let me see, and Clementine and Rose and Pearl and half a dozen more—my gracious, I must make a trip through every shop and store.

And there is Frieda, housemaid girl, and Mary Ann, the cook—eré I forget I'll put their names right down now in my book. And, Oh! what shall I give to Will? Tee hee, what shall it be? I feel sure that a diamond ring he'll prefer. He says he only wants a kiss, and maybe that is so, but how to hang it on a tree there is no way I know. A nice silk four-in-hand might do, with stripes of green and white; I know he wouldn't be like pa and say it was a fright.

"And now I think I'll go to bed and put aside my list; tomorrow I am sure to think of some one I have missed. I will be bankrupt when I buy the things from ties to muff—yes, Christmas comes but once a year, and, gracious, that's enough."—Brooklyn Standard Union.

The World's Most Beautiful Volcano!

Nevertheless It is a Reservoir of Titanic Destructive Powers.

Mayon Volcano, now quiet, but which in the recent past has taken many lives and destroyed much property. The Philippine Islands are one of the most interesting lands in the world for the American tourist to visit.

Mount Mayon, in the province of Albay, Philippine Islands is declared to be one of the most beautiful volcanoes in the world. No matter from which side the mountain is viewed, the cone is almost perfectly symmetrical. The setting of the volcano has much to do with its exquisite beauty, as it rises to a height of 7,943 feet from an almost level plain. The peak is visible for more than 60 miles, its regular, bare slopes near the top giving rare reflections from the illumination of the sun, while at its base is one of the most productive and picturesque landscapes to be seen anywhere in the world. A magnificent road, 120 miles in length, circles the mountain at its base, passing through the most varying scenery. Mayon has a history as an active volcano. It has destroyed whole towns. The most destructive eruption was in 1814, when 1,200 persons were killed. It last came to life in 1900, sending a river of lava into the sea at a distance of 8 miles from the crater. Since then it has been quiet.

Thanksgiving.

By T. C. Harbaugh.

In the twilight of November,
With its foliage of gold,
Comes again the glad Thanksgiving
Blest with customs dear and old;
And beneath the starry banner
As it floats from sea to sea,
We a happy people gather,
Fears at rest, for all are free.

Not a hand in all the nation,
In the East or in the West,
Bars the mansion or the cottage
To the glad Thanksgiving guest;
From the balm, kindly Southland
To the nodding pines of Maine,
Nature, filled with joy and triumph,
Spreads her annual feast again.

We are thankful for the blessings
That have crowned our cherished land—
Fruitful orchards, golden harvests,
Peace and love from strand to strand.
'Neath November's robes of beauty
Hidden lies the warrior's sword,
And the olive branch is hanging
O'er the nation's festal board.

Aye, from mountain unto mountain
'Neath the Union's starry dome
To the feast we spread this autumn
Bid the absent welcome home;
Round the board where all are merry
Let the brightest sunlight play;
With the love-key of Thanksgiving
Open every heart today.

Hail the hallowed Thanksgiving
Which the Pilgrim Fathers gave;
'Tis their legacy forever
On the land and on the wave;
Then, as Freedom's chosen people,
We our destiny fulfill.
May the Future's sweet Thanksgiving
Find us grander, greater still.

A LARGE quantity of dust-laden air is "inhaled" by the daily operation of an automobile engine. With this road dust, carbon and fine particles of metal get into the lubricating oil and circulate through your engine, lowering the efficiency of its operation. Add to this dirt the gasoline that escapes past the pistons and dilutes the oil—

Here you have a combination that wears and tears and grinds away, every day adding a little more dirt and forcing a little more unnecessary wear on bearing surfaces. Result: slow response—less power—poor performance—shorter engine life.

Our new Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service is the enemy of dirt in the crankcase—it means "clean oil in a clean engine." The Calor Flushing Oil we use is the new, scientific, thorough flushing agent that does not contaminate the fresh Zerolene refilled into your cleaned crankcase. This modern, convenient service, given quickly and at a nominal cost, returns your engine to you clean and fresh, ready to give that satisfactory performance you expect.

Today: Bring in your car for Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service.

A SONG FOR THANKSGIVING

Summer is gone,
Autumn is here;
This is the harvest
For all the year.

Corn in the crib, oats in the bin,
Wheat is thrashed, barley drawn in.

Apples are barreled, nuts laid to dry;
Frost in the garden, winter is nigh.

Father in Heaven, thank Thee for all.
Winter and springtime, summer and fall.

Coffin-Shaped Pie Crusts.

Selden, the antiquary, tells us that Christmas pies were formerly baked in a coffin-shaped crust to represent the cratch or manger in which our Saviour was laid.

THANKSGIVING AT ITS BEST

City Boys and Girls Don't Make as Much of the Day as Do Their Country Cousins.

The joys of Thanksgiving are not partaken in the fullness thereof by many city boys and girls. They simply know that it is a holiday, when the pleasures and trials of school life are temporarily laid aside, when churches are open for those who want to return devout thanks for the manifold blessings with which they may have been showered, and when the larger fairly groans with uncommon delicacies.

It is in the country that the manifold blessings of Thanksgiving day reach their full fruition. It is not a mere episode there, as it is in the city, but an event that is anxiously looked forward to for weeks before it dawns. In its celebration it differs from the ways of the city as widely as does day from night. In the thickly populated towns the religious aspect of the holiday has been lost sight of to a great extent, and in its place there has grown up the habit of feasting and making merry. It is a time for family gatherings, for balls, for football, for theatricals and the thousand and one pleasures city life is beset with.

Count Your Blessings.

DECORATING FOR CHRISTMAS

Holly Wreaths Help to Make the Home Cheerful—How to Keep the Tree Bright and Green.

It is not Christmas without a big, gorgeous, glittering Christmas tree and plenty of greens hung wherever possible.

Of course you have your tree chosen and ready for its great purpose. When it's time for cutting, invite your boy and girl friends to help, and make the bringing in of the Christmas tree a real ceremony. In England this is one of the big events for young and old.

The kind of tree to be used depends upon where you live. Red cedar, white pine, spruce, fir or hemlock are all good. To keep the tree bright and green set it in a deep bucket or low barrel, brace and fill the space between the tree and bucket or barrel with coal. Then pour in water until the receptacle is full.

Every home should be decorated at Christmas. Gather holly for wreaths, make ropes of laurel, and have several bowls filled with partridge berries. Mistletoe is beautiful and can be found as a growth on top of sweetgums, live oaks and other deciduous trees in the territory south of New Jersey, southern Indiana and Missouri, and in Oregon and northern California. Other fine plants for decorating are Christmas fern and polypody. Black alder and flex or inkberry can also be used. Every district has some special green that is adaptable for decorating. In gathering greens, never destroy the plants; cut and pick carefully and the growth will not be injured.
